You know your organization. We know the law. The attorneys of Dalton & Tomich, PLC have the experience and the knowledge to work with you to develop a legal solution that helps accomplish your goals. Our collaborative approach has helped leaders like you grow businesses and banks, develop and expand churches, and build nonprofit organizations nationwide. We will develop a thorough understanding of the unique needs of your organization – a result of the strong professional and personal relationships we establish with our clients and our unwavering commitment to your cause. With our firm, you will find the perfect combination of legal knowledge and experience, along with a collaborative, client-based approach that will help you achieve the results you desire. We will be partners in your success.

Whether you are founder of a startup or leading an established corporation, partnerships matter. Your relationship with an experienced business attorney is critical to your success. We work hand in hand with our corporate and entrepreneurial clients to provide advice on a wide range of transactions and other issues pertaining to business law. As a client, you will benefit from our experience, knowledge of industry best practices, and the collaborative approach that has allowed us to work with hundreds of business leaders like you to advance important objectives and achieve organizational goals. We have helped our clients succeed at all stages of the business life cycle, from small businesses to middle market companies. This includes business legal matters such as commercial transactions, acquisitions, dispositions, financing and governmental compliance and regulation. We have also successfully represented businesses in the pursuit of bad debts in local state courts and defended larger companies in federal court.

Our legal services for businesses include:

Zana Tomich will be the primary attorney providing services to these clients. Zana is a founding partner of the firm and has been helping businesses for what seems like her whole life. As an integral part of her family's restaurant, operating for nearly four decades, she developed the business mindset early on in life. Today she advises creative companies, financial institutions, restaurants and other emerging businesses on a wide range of issues. Her work has earned her recognition as one of Michigan's Top Women Attorneys, and she has been named a Super Lawyers Rising Star and a Michigan Lawyers Weekly Up & Coming Lawyer.

Zana frequently serves in the role of general counsel to her clients, advising on varied subject matter including:

- business formation, including organizational documents such as shareholder agreements
- employment issues
- securing funding
- negotiation of contracts, including leases and vendor agreements
- acquisitions and mergers
- selling or otherwise disposing of assets
- succession planning

The attentiveness, deep understanding of clients' businesses and the pragmatic approach Zana brings to every new collaboration frequently allows her clients to avoid issues altogether. Most importantly, it frees them to focus on their creative work. She also assists clients in all aspects of real estate transactions, including the financing, development, sale and leasing of commercial properties.
