

The C.L. Stefani Company, LLC

4633 Admiral Drive
Sterling Heights, MI 48310

The C.L. Stefani Company is a Detroit based design-think group made up of a collection of multimedia designers who believe in the work that they do & the people they serve. The company is founded on the belief that design is a means of solving any identified problem and that, when employed, produces the best solutions in all context.

The Company works both residentially and commercially - offering a range of services including, but not limited to, architectural and interior design services, graphic and fine arts, staging and event planning. Our team works alongside our clients, conceptual through development, in order to create a space that truly reflects its intentions. We work in collaborative nature in order to ensure our ability to offer a wide variety of services and a multitudes of scales – curating the right team in order to offer quality to our clientele.

The C.L. Stefani Company LLC was founded in 2016 by Christopher L. Stefani. Christopher is a graduate of Lawrence Technological University with degrees in Architecture and Interior Architecture, is SEED certified and is an associate member of the American Institute of Architects.

“I believe that beautiful spaces translate their intentions, reflect their purpose and create an environment. It is not about the items that fill a space – but rather the designed moments that they will share in”
