The Attorney

Alari K. Adams, currently recognized as a Michigan Super Lawyers Rising Star, is the principal attorney and founder of A|Squared Legal Group. Hailing from a family of entrepreneurs, Alari understands the hard work and sacrifice it takes to start and grow a business, as well as what is needed once a business is established and continuing to grow. This empathy motivated Alari to start A|Squared Legal Group for the purpose of ensuring businesses and individuals were provided with effective legal counsel to ensure perpetual success.

Alari K. Adams has developed a comprehensive background in matters relating to business and employment law. Alari's diverse experience has given her the capacity to represent a wide array of clientele, ranging from Fortune 500 companies to small businesses, public entities, and individuals. She has assisted these clients with issues pertaining to labor and employment law, business transactions and litigation, intellectual property, and human resources. Alari has litigated issues that have been featured on local and national media outlets. She draws upon these diverse experiences to effectively counsel her clients, by providing the best and most practical advice from a business and legal standpoint.

Alari received her Juris Doctor from Wayne State University Law School and graduated from The Eli Broad College of Business at Michigan State University.
